

pennies for shriners

My name is Ryan; I am a second grade student at Willett School. Last year my sister Emily got burned. She was sent to the Shriners children's hospital. While she was there I went to visit her a lot. I saw some of the other kids staying there some weren't as lucky as Emily; they needed more help than her. While I was there I found out that they are a free hospital. My dad told me they get paid by donations and people who volunteer, so I would like to help them. I am collecting pennies and I am hoping you will help. Any you can spare will help and be appreciated.
